

Divergent

This atypical design showcases exquisite cashmere grey birdseye maple and american black walnut in a modern yet timeless aesthetic. Cleverly concealed within the top is set of steel slides that allow the table to expand by nearly four feet without the addition of central legs. This savvy design provides a comfortable space to share a meal with the people who matter the most.

Shown here 96"L, 36"W, 30"H, Plus (TWO) 18" Leaves. Available in virtually any size or finish. Contact us for a custom quote.
